1. Presentation

The 3rd International Historical Congress - Cities in History, will take place in Guimarães, from 25th to 27th of October, 2023.

The Congress will be divided into five major thematic areas: the city in the Ancient World, in Medieval Age, Early Modern, Contemporary, and finally the city of the present and the future. Each of these areas will have a plenary session structured around two guest speakers, one Portuguese and another from a foreign country. Each thematic area will have a series of parallel sessions in which the results of empirical research on different periods can be presented and discussed. There will be a special session dedicated to Local History. The Congress will finish with a round table on the city of the future.

The works will take place at Vila Flor's Cultural Centre (www.ccvf.pt) where all the necessary means are available for presentations, namely sound and projection equipment.

The Congress will have no official language. Although most of the works may be presented in Portuguese or Spanish, simultaneous translation for English or French speakers is not excluded. Each presentation will have 15 minutes.

Communications must be submitted on the congress web page (<http://ch.guimaraes.pt/>) by September 30, 2023.

As comunicações deverão ser submetidas na página do congresso até ao dia 30 de setembro de 2023. It is planned the edition of congress proceedings.
